Medical information

The agency will request and pass on to LSC any relevant medical information such as allergies, dietary requirements and any current medical conditions or currently prescribed medicine.

The agency will obtain a signature from the parents/guardians to allow the school to act 'in loco parentis' when having to administer prescribed medication or when dealing with a medical emergency.

Any student who has had an infectious disease in the three weeks prior to the course start date will not be accepted on the course.

LSC takes no responsibility for medical emergencies arising from non-disclosure of current medical information.

Pre-course information

LSC will provide the agency with information such as contact details for the course centre and the social programme. The agency will ensure that this is passed on to the students and their parents or guardians.
